PERFUMES NOTES

Head note: The head note is immediately noticeable in the first few minutes after the fragrance begins to spread from the materials. As the head note is the first to be sensed, it shapes the first impression that you have of the fragrance.

Heart note: The heart note of the fragrance is first perceived in the hours after the head note has evaporated and represents the individual character of each fragrance.

Base note: The base note lasts for the longest amount of time and lets the fragrance fade away softly and pleasantly.

AMBIANCE

A great fragrance adventure, a powerful signature. When you start your journey surrounded by the scent of pink grapefruit and a bergamot matured in the sun, tropical nutmeg freshness greets you. FOR HIM & M3

A masculine fragrance combining smoky scents and warm notes. Mysterious yet sincere, contradictory yet powerful. In addition to the freshness of orange and lemon, a mixture of pink pepper and ginger and natural spicy notes come to the fore. At the heart of the fragrance, the attractive breeze of white flowers makes itself felt. The deep blend of cedar wood and patchouli brings the signature of naturalness to your skin. This fragrance causes a feeling of addiction thanks to the strong dispersion of incense, vetiver and vanilla with a mysterious trail.
